The image consists of a uniform grid of small, square halftone dots. The density of these dots is constant across the entire area, creating a uniform texture. A vertical gradient is applied from left to right, where the dots appear slightly larger and more numerous on the right side, giving it a subtle, high-contrast look.

A large, hand-drawn style oval containing the text "吳仁燉....." in Chinese characters. The oval is drawn with a thick black line and has a slightly irregular shape. The text is written in a bold, stylized font, with "吳仁" on the left and "燉" on the right, followed by four small dots. The background outside the oval is white.

A high-contrast, black and white halftone photograph of a man's face, showing his eyes, nose, and mouth. The image has a distinct dot pattern and is framed by a thick black border.

A halftone pattern consisting of a grid of black dots on a white background. The density of dots increases from bottom to top, creating a smooth gradient effect. The dots are arranged in a regular grid pattern.

A horizontal band of halftone dots at the top of the page, consisting of a grid of small black squares.

The image shows a black and white halftone dot pattern. The dots are arranged in a regular grid, creating a textured background. The pattern consists of small, dark, diamond-shaped dots on a light background, with the density of the dots varying across the image to create a visual effect.

A halftone dot pattern where the density of dots forms the shape of the letter 'E'. The pattern consists of a grid of small black dots on a white background. The dots are more densely packed along the vertical stroke of the 'E' and less densely packed in the horizontal strokes and the central area.

卷之三

A black and white halftone graphic consisting of a grid of small squares. The squares are arranged in a staggered pattern, creating a diamond-like texture. A solid black horizontal band runs across the middle of the image, dividing it into two sections. The top section contains the diamond pattern, while the bottom section is filled with the same diamond pattern. The overall effect is a high-contrast, geometric design.
